1. Introduction

The Creative Practitioners' Bursary Scheme has been established to help improve access to creative skills training or development programmes for creative practitioners residing or professionally based in the Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council area.

These guidelines provide an overview of financial support available through the scheme and will help you decide if the financial assistance offered is appropriate for you.

If you are successful in securing a bursary, you will be contractually obliged to work closely with the Officers within the Cultural Services Unit of the Council, including active participation in any review processes and the provision of monitoring and evaluation information as required.

You may find it helpful to discuss your project with one of the named officers before submitting your application:

1.1. Purpose of Bursary Scheme

Causeway Coast & Glens Borough Council recognises the enormous cultural, artistic and heritage assets within its geographical area and commissioned a 5-year Culture, Arts & Heritage Strategy to cover the period 2016-2021.

The primary objective of the cultural strategy is to ensure that both local ratepayers and visitors to the area have continuous access to high quality, accessible, inclusive and affordable cultural services, including arts, museums and heritage. It was developed following a wide-ranging and inclusive consultation process which took in the views, ideas and aspirations of stakeholders from community, cultural and related sectors.

The introduction of this scheme is in direct response to the findings from the consultation process which highlighted the need to support the development of our creative practitioners.

1.2 Overview of the Scheme

This bursary scheme links to Strategic Theme 2 in the Cultural Strategy - Investing in creative learning & skills development – by

1.4 General Principles Applying to the Creative Practitioners' Bursary Scheme.

Council is committed to distributing available bursaries fairly, efficiently and effectively. The following general principles will apply to Causeway Coast and Glens Council's administration of this scheme:

- As this bursary scheme is limited and subject to availability of funds, this is a competitive process and all awards will be determined on the basis of merit. The selection panel will look at the quality of the activity to be undertaken.
- While careful consideration will be given to each application, it may not be possible to assist every applicant even if all the criteria are met.
- Applicants who have been awarded a bursary in the past three years will not be considered for funding.
- It is a prime responsibility of the Council to ensure the proper and efficient use of and accountability for public funding. To this end, applicants will be required to provide relevant and accurate supporting information when applying for a bursary.
- Applicants must clearly demonstrate the benefits from investing in their creative skills development
- Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council will pay up to a maximum of £1000.
- Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council will not fund retrospectively and cannot accept applications for training or activity already undertaken.
- Successful applicants will be required to produce a short report on how they used their bursary and the benefit they gained from it both on completion of the training/project and a follow on report 6-12 months later. This should include supporting evidence eg photos, manuscript, recordings etc.
- Successful applicants must acknowledge Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council support in press releases and other associated publicity.
- Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council reserves the right to make public the name of any applicant who is awarded a bursary. Successful applicants should, where possible, be available to participate in PR opportunities which could include photo calls and showcasing events.

- In the interests of transparency, equality and accountability all applicants will have a right of appeal should their application be rejected.
